STOCKIST INFORMATION 2025

Thank you for your interest in stocking The Journal of Australian Ceramics at your outlet.
Please see below for some important information.

Australian stockists receive copies at the wholesale price of $14 (incl. GST).
The minimum order is three magazines. Most stockists take 5–10 magazines.
The recommended retail price is $20 (incl. GST)

The Journal of Australian Ceramics is published three times per year:
1 April, 17 July and 20 November.

Issues are current for 4 months, eg. the April issue is current until the end of July.

It is preferred that you display copies of two issues at any one time, eg July & November.
You can then return unsold April issues for credit.

Journals are provided to stockists on a SALE or RETURN basis. If you don't sell it, then you can return it within one year of publication; no risk, no fuss.

The Journal of Australian Ceramics (formerly known as Pottery in Australia) celebrated 60 years of continuous publication in 2022. As Australia's most widely read ceramics magazine it is a valuable ongoing information resource for professional and amateur ceramicists, students, curators, arts administrators, buyers and collectors of quality ceramics.

Thank you for your support of our Journal. We look forward to promoting you as a stockist through our online channels. Be sure to use the hashtag #australianceramics so we can follow your activities.

Please contact us if you have any questions or if you wish to order more stock on 1300 720 124 or jac@australianceramics.com.
